Nayak, Shri P. Jagga Rao and Shri P. P. Somu Naidu with effect from the 5th October 2004 to 21st October 2004 by the Chief Executive (Works), J.K. Paper Mills, Jaykaypur, Dist. Rayagada is legal and/or justified ? If not, to what relief are these workers entitled ?”

AWARD

2.This is a case is put up today as per the order. It appears from the order sheet of the record that in spite of several opportunities given to the petitioner (Workman) for filing claim statement the Workman neither enter his appearance nor sent the claim statement as per direction of the Government. The opportunity given to the workman being foiled, the court suo moto intimated the workman about his right accrued at the instance of the Government by, virtue of Registered post the presumption can be draw regarding the proper despatch of the letter as revealed from the postal receipt attached. So also the receipt of the letter by the workman can be inferred. Accordingly the service of notice sent to the workman is considered to be sufficient. No fruitful purpose would be served by giving further opportunity . There is a mandate to dispose of the case within six weeks. For that purpose the Government has drawn his attention to file statement of claim within 15 days. Simultaneously, the Court power has been fettered in giving further time which has been confirmed with three adjournments.

Therefore, I am fully satisfied that there is nothing left to continue the proceeding than entelling ends dismissal. Accordingly there is no justification to pass an Award on the issue referred.

Hence 'No Dispute Award' passed accordingly.

Dictated and corrected by me.
